MUSICAL CLUB'S CONCERT.

A good sized audience had the pleasure of hearing the Trinity Glee and Mandolin Clubs in their annual Junior Week concert in Alumni Hall, last night, and their expectations of a good performance were in no way disappointed. We give herewith a list of the members of the musical clubs of which D. W. Gateson '06, is the president:

First Tenor, Gateson '06, Rehr '06, Cunningham '07, Carpenter '09; Second Tenor, Hyde '09, Stevens '08, Goodrich '09, Kilbourne '09, Henshaw '09, Naylor '06, Wolfe '08; First Bass, Curtis '06, Zoubeck '08, Smith '07, Harriman '09, Butler, P.G., Chandler '09; Second Bass, Skilton '08, P. Roberts '09, Cowper '06, Bowne '06, Xanders '09.

MANDOLIN CLUB: Leader, H. deW. de Mauriac '07. First Mandolins, De Mauriac '07, Maercklein '06, Gateson '06, McGinley '09; Second Mandolins, Randall '08, Henshaw '09, Creedon '09; Guitars, Rehr '06, Ferguson '07; Banjo, J. S. Carpenter '09; Violin, G. Buck '09; Cello, Clausson '09.

The programme of last night's concert has previously been published in the "Tripod." One change was made, a "Mudley Trio" taking the place of the quartet announced. The trio was composed of Messrs. Butler, Gateson and Cunningham who rendered an up-to-date "Mudley" which was one of the hits of the evening.

The "Choo Choo Cars" appealed to the audience as did the more difficult selections the "Winter Song" and "Huzza." The Mandolin Club exceeded all expectations. Mr. Curtiss' monologue was especially pleasing because of its local hits.

Perhaps the greatest praise of the evening was that given to Mr. Robert P. Butler, whose solo work was of a superior character and has delighted all his audiences.

The whole performance was a credit to the college and to the men who have worked so faithfully over the musical clubs. We must congratulate Mr. William B. Davis our trainer, from Middletown, on turning out such good material and Messrs. Gateson and deMauriac on their work as leaders. The successful management of the affair was done by Victor E. Rehr '06.

The programmes were handsomely gotten up. Those who attended enjoyed a dance which lasted till after midnight. It consisted of fourteen numbers with encores.

SOPHOMORE DINING CLUB BANQUET.

The Junior Week S. D. C. Banquet was held at the Elm Tree Inn, Farmington, on Saturday, February 10th. The toastmaster, Mr. Bern Budd, called on Mr. H. M. Geer, for "Athletics"; Mr. Edsall, "1908"; Mr. Stevens, "The Freshmen"; Mr. Morris, "S. D. C."

Mr. Trumbull was elected toastmaster for the next banquet.

The members present were Messrs. Budd, Butterworth, Cross, Donnelly, Edsall, Geer, Morris, Randall and Trumbull, all of the Sophomore class.

JUDGE BUFFINGTON ADDRESS.

The following is taken from Construction of Feb. 10, 1906:—

The Carnegie Technical schools inaugurated during the past week a plan which promises to be of incalculable benefit to the students at that institution. This plan is to have prominent business and professional men address the students on practical subjects. The first of these took place Thursday when Judge Joseph Buffington, of the United States Courts, addressed the student body, and held the young men deeply interested in a talk which will undoubtedly benefit them in their future life. The other speakers so far secured are also men of such well known standing and such wide experience that their addresses cannot fail to be instructive. Pittsburgh has many men who are competent to fill a chair of practical affairs in any college, but the Technical schools will avail themselves of more than one instructor along these lines.

COLLEGE TEA.

The annual college tea, which is given by the Junior class, was held Wednesday afternoon in Alumni Hall. As usual the more formal reception was held from 4 o'clock until 5. Dancing was the feature from 5 until 7. The hall was simply decorated with rugs and flowers, and in these were several "cosey corners." Mrs. Flavel S. Luther, assisted by the wives of several members of the faculty, received for the class of 1907. The names of the young ladies who poured were given in last Tuesday's "Tripod." The tea was well attended by both townspeople and the college men, in spite of the inclemency of the weather, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

BISHOP-ELECT WEBB.

The Rev. William Walter Webb, D.D., '82, Dean of Nashotah Divinity School, Wisconsin, will be consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Wisconsin on the Feast of St. Matthias (February 24th) in All Saint's Cathedral, Milwaukee, Wis.

MRS. VAN ZILE'S TEA.

This afternoon one of the pleasantest features of the week took place in the form of a tea given by Mrs. Edward S. Van Zile and Miss Mary Van Zile at their home, No. 75 Capitol avenue. Many of the undergraduates attended.

HOUSE PARTY AND TEA.

The house party given by the Beta Beta chapter of Psi Upsilon is now in progress. It began yesterday and will continue through to-morrow night. The participants are enjoying the events of Junior Week and will also have the pleasure of a theatre party on Saturday night.

Yesterday afternoon the tea given at the Psi Upsilon House, 81 Vernon street, proved a great success. The names of the ladies who are being entertained in the house party as well as of those who assisted at the tea have already been published in the "Tripod."

JUNIOR PROM. TO-NIGHT.

Everything is in readiness for the Junior Prom. which is the climax of Trinity Week. The "Tripod" has already published the list of patronesses and the dance music. The Prom. will commence at 8:30 to-night and will last through until four o'clock in the morning. The supper will be served after the eighteenth dance and the intermission will last from 12.15 till 1 a. m. There are thirty-six dances altogether.

The decorations are of a less elaborate nature than usual, but are very effective. The running track downstairs is all trimmed with hemlock, and a large Christmas tree works its way up between the flights of stairs; there is an immense evergreen arch in the hallway. Festoons of greens are hung from the rafters of the dance hall itself, and curtains of green form picturesque framework for the windows. There are three cosey corners screened by palms and greens. Scott Snow with his orchestra will be seated on the stage and surrounded by a forest of palms. Above the stage will be hung the numerals "1907" in red and white lights.

The following members of the class of 1907 compose the Junior Prom. committee and the success of this notable Trinity Week is largely due to their efforts: Marion Stuart Dravo, chairman, Charles Vaughan Ferguson, secretary-treasurer, Clifford Off, Gerald Arthur Cunningham, Irving Rinaldo Kenyon, Phillip Dougherty, Eugene E. George, Percy Carleton Bryant and Henri de Wolf de Mauriac.

JUNIOR WEEK GERMAN.

The third german of the season was given by the German Club in Alumni Hall, Tuesday evening. The german was the largest and consequently the most enjoyable of the dances given this year. It was divided into a dance and a german. The former commenced at 8 o'clock and lasted until 11:15 o'clock. Supper was then served in the gymnasium. The german commenced at 12 and lasted until 2 o'clock.

The chaperones were: Mrs. Flavel S. Luther, Mrs. Cranston Brenton and Mrs. F. M. Davis. Among the couples were the following: Hill Burgwin, with Miss Zimmerman, of East Orange, N. J.; Charles Trumbull, with Miss Claghorn; D. E. Landerburn, with Miss Page; G. W. Hubbard, with Miss Lawton; J. MacA. Johnson, with Miss Welling; W. H. Licht, with Miss Howe; H. T. Morgan, with Miss Macfarlane; B. C. Maercklein, with Miss Plumber; F. C. Coggeshall, with Miss Allen; H. DeW. de Mauriac, with Miss Bryant; E. K. Roberts, with Miss Welch; W. R. Cross, with Miss Toy; H. G. Barbour, with Miss Butler; J. C. Hart, with Miss Flagg; Paul Butterworth, with Miss Wander. President F. C. Hinkel, P. C. Bryant and H. O. Hinkel were also present as stags.

The german was led by Hill Burgwin,

1906, with Miss Eleanor Zimmerman. The music was furnished by Scott Snow.

THE ALPHA DELTA PHI RECEPTION.

One of the most successful events of the week was the reception held at the Alpha Delta Phi house, 122 Vernon street, last Tuesday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated with roses and palms, the orchestra being screened from view by a bank of palms. The banners and pillows were tastefully arranged, making several cosey corners. Those who received were: Mrs. Luther, Mrs. Alton, Mrs. James Goodwin, Mrs. de Mauriac and Miss Julia Davenport. Those who poured were the Misses Plummer, Welch, Gross, Toy, Van Zile and Flagg. About 150 people called during the afternoon.

TRINITY DEFEATED AT BASKET BALL.

The Manhattan basketball team defeated Trinity in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium in Hartford, Tuesday evening, by the score of 22 to 15. The game was dull, both sides being poor at basket throwing. The line was as follows:

Manhattan	Trinity
Amaziega r.f.	Donnelly r.f.
Mahoney l.f.	Connor, Powell, l.f.
Bolton c.	Marlor c.
Miller r.g.	Collins, Connor r.g.
O'Donnell l.g.	Fallow l.g.

Score: Manhattan 22, Trinity 15.

LECTURES ON CURRENT EVENTS.

Mr. Burpee, during the Trinity term, will give lectures on current events along the lines of those given by him last spring. They will be given before the History I class, but all undergraduates not otherwise engaged are invited to attend.

The first of these lectures will be given in the History Room next Monday at 11.45 a. m.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

The announcement of the lectures by Mr. Burpee, of the Hartford Courant, on current events, to be given this term, is very pleasing to the students who were privileged to hear Mr. Burpee last year. Mr. Burpee's lectures of last year gave general satisfaction and attracted a large number of voluntary attendants. We assure those who did not attend these lectures last year that they will find them very instructive. The supplemental and voluntary lectures which the faculty provide during the year have become one of the distinctive features of Trinity College, and one which has received favorable comment and imitation from other colleges. Owing to our location in Hartford, and nearness to New York and Boston, we have exceptional opportunities to procure lecturers. It is well that the students recognize this advantage and make use of it, and thus give reason for a development of this feature of college instruction.

TRINITY VS. HOLY CROSS.

On Wednesday next, at 7.30 p. m. Trinity will compete with Holy Cross in an indoor track meet to be held at the Elm street Armory. The events will be a 40 yard dash, a mile run and a mile relay race. The men have been training daily at the armory.

LANDEFELD FOR COACH.

Good Man for the Place.

Mr. Waterman, graduate treasurer of the Athletic Association has announced that J. Clinton Landefeld, captain of the football team last fall, will coach the team next season. Landefeld was a Junior, but did not return to college after the Christmas vacation for financial reasons. His practical knowledge of the game will make him very valuable to the team as coach next year. His selection and acceptance of the position are extremely satisfactory to both the student body and the alumni. With good material to work on, Landefeld should be able to develop a team next fall that will eclipse the record of last fall.

Landefeld is one of the very best athletes that ever came to Trinity. He represented the college on the football, baseball and basketball teams, and on each of these teams he was a star. Those who have ever seen him in a game will acknowledge that he could have made any or all of these teams in any college of the country. In basketball as in all other branches of athletics, Landefeld was something more than an excellent individual player. He supplied the aggressive spirit without which no team can do more than make a good showing. His presence and his confidence in himself supplied the other men with confidence. An example of this quality which will never be forgotten by those who witnessed it was when Trinity played Rhode Island State College in football last fall. At that time Landefeld was suffering from an injury received in a previous game, and did not enter the game at the start. The two teams were evenly matched in weight, and both scored a touchdown early in the first half. Then Landefeld got into the game. The game which had hitherto been an even contest, now developed into a walk away for Trinity the final score being 29 to 12. In baseball Landefeld was third baseman on the best team that Trinity ever had. He could cover an enormous amount of territory, and his throwing was speedy and accurate.

But it is his qualities of generalship and his familiarity with training methods and football tactics which led to his selection for the position of coach. Landefeld acted the triple parts of coach, trainer and captain last fall, and in each department he proved himself a master. Thus the fact that Landefeld will coach makes the outlook for next year bright.

REMOVAL OF QUARRY BUILDINGS.

For something like fifty years stone has been quarried from the ledge of rock in back of college, but after the cities' board of "contract and supply" accepts a bid for the dismantling of the quarry the old abandoned buildings will have to go and the ledge will assume a different aspect. The park board has no further use for the old buildings except the office, and the powder house, blacksmith shop, boiler house, boiler and engine, crusher building with shafting and screens, elevator run and buckets, with the brick chimney will be sold to the highest bidder, who will be required to remove them before April Fool's Day.

It is not expected that the city treasury will realize very much from the sale but the building would be in the way in the spring when the park board begins to expend the expected appropriation on what is to become Rocky Ridge Park. Already $3,000 has been appropriated by the board for this park.

Aside from having merely performed the work of crushing the rock for Hartford streets these buildings have a history in connection with this part of the city.

In and about them were formerly employed a large number of men of Irish extraction whose employment lasted during but six months of the year. During the winter they enjoyed a restful and contented existence living on the money they earned quarrying in the summer. These men were an important factor in politics and everyone who would have suggested the abandonment of the quarry would have been ostracised politically. They domineered over that locality known as "back of the rock" where their homes were, and the younger ones guarded this jealously against the intrusions of undergraduates, with whom they had many encounters.

A few years ago it was discovered that economize as they might stone could be brought more cheaply than it could be quarried, but the work was kept up until the lease with the college expired and then the plant with its Corliss engine upon which more than one undergraduate has had designs was abandoned.

The college will miss the old landmark but it will be glad to welcome in its place one of the links of Hartford's chain of Parks.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends. In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.
